Bombay High Court Breaks Silence

FIR Ordered in Dalit Law Student's Custodial Death

Sheikh Rayees • July 7, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The iron gates of justice creaked open in Parbhani as the Bombay High Court stepped in to demand accountability in the death of Somnath Suryawanshi, a 35-year-old Dalit law student who never returned home from police custody. Suryawanshi had been picked up by police in November 2024, following protests sparked by the desecration of a replica of the Indian Constitution near a statue of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. The official narrative...
