SUPREME COURT

INR30-Crore Deal Collapse Casts Shadow Over Complaint; Supreme Court Extends Pre-Arrest Relief to Tech Entrepreneur

Sheikh Rayees • April 17, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

A dispute that allegedly pivoted on a failed INR30-crore settlement became central to the Supreme Court's decision to grant anticipatory bail to a Kerala-based IT entrepreneur accused of rape and sexual harassment. The Court observed that the criminal complaint appeared to have surfaced only after negotiations for a financial resolution broke down.
