Rajasthan High Court Pushes for Erasing Juvenile Records in Minor Offenses

Sheikh Rayees • March 3, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Rajasthan High Court has advocated for reform within the juvenile justice system, emphasizing the need to expunge records of minor offenses committed by young individuals. This approach, the Court argued, would foster rehabilitation and remove obstacles to their personal and professional development. Highlighting the impulsive nature of youth, the Court underscored that decisions made during adolescence should not permanently tarnish an individual's future. "A...
