Supreme Court Says Allahabad HC Ruling on Hijab Ban Cannot Be Cited as Precedent

Sheikh Rayees • November 26, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has clarified that the Allahabad High Court's decision upholding a school's restriction on wearing hijab in classrooms will not serve as a legal precedent, as the challenge to the ruling moves forward before the apex court. A Bench comprising Justices Aravind Kumar and Vipul M Pancholi issued notice to the Uttar Pradesh government on an appeal challenging the High Court's August 21 judgment in Muslim Womens Study...
