Bombay High Court Overturns Convictions in Bribery Case

Sheikh Rayees • November 25, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a dramatic conclusion to a case spanning over two decades, the Bombay High Court's Aurangabad bench has cleared the names of an Assistant Public Prosecutor (APP) and a law clerk accused in a bribery scandal dating back to 2002. The court ruled that the convictions, initially secured under the Prevention of Corruption Act, were unsupported by credible evidence. The case stemmed from allegations that APP Nasibkhan Gulabkhan Pathan demanded...
