Bombay High Court Grounds INR1.5 Cr Penalty Against Airports Authority in Aer Lingus Case

Sheikh Rayees • May 3, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A long-simmering legal storm over unpaid airport charges took a sharp turn when the Bombay High Court hit pause on a hefty INR1.5 crore penalty imposed on the Airports Authority of India (AAI) by a trial court. The fine stemmed from AAI's decision to haul Irish aircraft lessor Aer Lingus into a commercial suit that began back in 1997—a move the lower court had branded both malicious and vexatious. But...
