Supreme Court Orders Police to Vacate Ancestral Bombay Flats, Slams Delay by High Court

Sheikh Rayees • April 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a case that reads like a chapter torn from a post-colonial property saga, the Supreme Court has ordered the Maharashtra Police to vacate two flats in South Bombay that they've occupied since the 1940s—rent-free. The top court delivered a sharp rebuke to the Bombay High Court for refusing to intervene, calling its decision a failure to uphold constitutional duty. Instead of acknowledging the bizarre and prolonged nature of the...
