Bombay High Court Orders Return of Shop Taken for 1956 Election Campaign

Sheikh Rayees • June 9, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

A small Mumbai shop that changed hands during an election campaign in the 1950s is finally set to return to its original tenant's family, after the Bombay High Court ruled that the tenancy was never legally surrendered. The dispute revolved around a 250-square-foot shop located at Godavari Bhuvan on LJ Road, Mumbai. The premises had been leased in 1944 to the father of the present petitioners for a monthly rent...
