A Signboard Isn't a Battlefield”

Supreme Court Embraces Urdu, Affirms Linguistic Harmony in Maharashtra

Sheikh Rayees • April 16, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a ruling that threads poetry through the fabric of constitutional clarity, the Supreme Court of India has firmly turned down a challenge against the inclusion of Urdu on the signboard of the Patur Municipal Council in Maharashtra. With a tone steeped in inclusivity and cultural reverence, the Court declared that a signboard in more than one language isn't a provocation — it's communication. The verdict came after a prolonged...
