Activist Wins Court Battle to Honor Stan Swamy with Private Memorial

Sheikh Rayees • November 26, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Madras High Court has paved the way for an activist in Tamil Nadu to honor Jesuit priest and tribal rights advocate Stan Swamy by constructing a memorial on private land. Despite staunch opposition from the State, the court upheld the principle that individuals have the right to commemorate figures of personal significance on their own property. The court's ruling quashed a 2021 order by local authorities that barred Piyush...
