INR17.83 Lakh Awarded for Faulty 'Punjabi House' Tiles

Sheikh Rayees • August 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a striking verdict, a Kerala consumer court has ordered compensation of INR17.83 lakh to Bollywood actor Harisree Ashokan over defective tiles installed in his home, famously dubbed 'Punjabi House'—a nod to his role in the 1998 hit film of the same name. The Ernakulam District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (DCDRC) found a blatant deficiency in service from the tile providers and installers. Despite assurances to rectify any defects, the...
