Allahabad High Court Bans Lawyers from New Chambers Over Frivolous Petition

Sheikh Rayees • August 20, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp rebuke, the Allahabad High Court recently criticized two lawyers for filing a Public Interest Litigation (PIL) aimed at halting the construction of new advocates' chambers and parking facilities within the court premises. The Court not only dismissed the petition but also barred the lawyers from obtaining chambers or entering the newly constructed premises. The division bench, comprising Justice Mahesh Chandra Tripathi and Justice Prashant Kumar, highlighted a...
