Allahabad High Court Challenges Local Bar's Practice

Night Hawk • March 26, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent and stirring development, the Allahabad High Court has cast a critical eye on the practices within legal advocacy circles, particularly spotlighting the Bahraich District Bar Association's contentious resolution. This resolution effectively barred its members from representing individuals in cases pitting them against fellow advocates. The Court's disapproval, voiced by Justice Subhash Vidyarthi, underscores a pivotal moment in the ongoing discourse on the...
