Allahabad High Court Demands Statewide Action to Support Homeless Population

Sheikh Rayees • July 17, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark move, the Allahabad High Court has mandated a comprehensive statewide initiative to identify homeless individuals within municipal areas and ensure they receive essential aid, including shelter and healthcare. The directive, issued by a division bench comprising Justice Rajan Roy and Justice Om Prakash Shukla, targets four specific categories of homeless persons: able-bodied, mentally ill, mentally retarded, and differently-abled. The Chief Medical Officer, in...
