ALLAHABAD HIGH COURT

Allahabad High Court Gives UP Government 48 Hours to Clear Dues of Gram Sabha Panel Lawyers

Sheikh Rayees • November 24, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Allahabad High Court has directed the Uttar Pradesh government to clear outstanding professional fees owed to lawyers representing Gram Sabhas across the State, expressing concern that prolonged payment delays could affect the timely disposal of cases. A Division Bench comprising Justice Ajit Kumar and Justice Garima Prashad observed that it was deeply troubled by reports that panel advocates appearing for Gram Sabhas before the High Court had been...
