Allahabad High Court Pushes Back on Bar Body's "No Adverse Orders" Plea Amid Lawyer Absence

Sheikh Rayees • November 10, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a firm stance, the Allahabad High Court recently voiced its disapproval of a request from the High Court Bar Association (HCBA) asking the court to withhold issuing adverse rulings in cases where lawyers were abstaining from work. The HCBA's letter, which was presented by a representative without a formal resolution, sparked an unreserved response from the court, underscoring the impropriety of such requests made on behalf of only a...
