ALLAHABAD HIGH COURT

Allahabad High Court Slams ‘Baseless’ Cattle Slaughter Suspicion, Orders INR15 Lakh Compensation for Seized Vehicle

Sheikh Rayees • November 9, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Allahabad High Court has ordered the Uttar Pradesh government to pay more than INR15 lakh to a vehicle owner whose commercial vehicle was seized and confiscated over allegations of transporting two bullocks for slaughter. The Court found that the action was based on assumptions rather than evidence, leaving the owner without his primary source of income for an extended period. In Tej Prakash v. State of Uttar Pradesh and...
