

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

COURT OF RECORD

Arbitration Clock Starts With the Notice, Not the Court Doorstep Supreme Court Draws a Clear Line

Sheikh Rayees • January 8, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has put to rest a recurring confusion in arbitration law: proceedings begin when a party's notice invoking arbitration reaches the other side—not when a court is approached to appoint an arbitrator.

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN