PUBLISHED REPORT

In a gripping turn at the Allahabad High Court, Tinku Bhargava, a BJP Scheduled Caste Morcha district president, secured bail despite facing charges in a chilling case of alleged beheading of a political associate and friend, a bullion trader. The court's decision came after a close examination of his background and the progress of the trial. Justice Ajay Bhanot emphasized Bhargava's clean slate—no prior criminal record—and ruled he poses no...
