BCI Cracks Down on Substandard Law Colleges, Bars New Admissions

Sheikh Rayees • June 26, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move aimed at upholding educational standards, the Bar Council of India (BCI) has barred seven law colleges across Uttar Pradesh, Andhra Pradesh, and Rajasthan from admitting new students for the upcoming academic year. This stern measure comes amidst concerns over the proliferation of subpar institutions offering legal education in India. The affected colleges include prominent names such as HS Law College in Etah, Uttar Pradesh, affiliated with...
