BCI Slams SILF Over “Self-Serving” Protests Against Foreign Law Firms, Mulls Disciplinary Action

Sheikh Rayees • June 30, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Bar Council of India (BCI) has turned its glare on the Society of Indian Law Firms (SILF), accusing it of crossing a professional red line with what it described as “sensational and misleading” commentary on the contentious entry of foreign law firms into India’s legal market. In a strongly worded statement released Sunday, the BCI accused certain SILF office bearers of using the profession to further private interests, alleging...
