BCI to Bar Associations No Strikes Over New Criminal Laws

Sheikh Rayees • June 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Bar Council of India (BCI) has called on Bar Associations to hold off on strikes, protests, or agitations against three new criminal laws set to be implemented on July 1. The BCI, addressing concerns raised by lawyers, has promised the formation of a committee to tackle these issues and suggest necessary amendments. In a statement released on June 26, the BCI emphasized that it would involve senior lawyers, former...
