BCI Urges Lawyers to Halt Protests as Law Ministry Signals Willingness to Amend Bill

Sheikh Rayees • February 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Bar Council of India (BCI) has called on lawyers to suspend their protests against the Advocates (Amendment) Bill, 2025, emphasizing that continued agitation could undermine negotiations with the Union Law Ministry. In a letter to multiple bar associations in Delhi, the BCI highlighted that government officials, including Union Minister of State for Law and Justice Arjun Ram Meghwal, have shown a cooperative stance and are actively considering the...
