Madras High Court Targets Media Mudslingers and 'Contempt Cloaked as Free Speech'

Sheikh Rayees • July 29, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Madras High Court has delivered a stinging rebuke to those who, in the name of activism or television ratings, turn the judiciary into a punching bag for personal or political narratives. At the heart of the storm is Advocate Vanchinathan, summoned for a slew of interviews and posts accusing Justice GR Swaminathan of caste and communal bias—a charge the Court made clear it wasn't taking lightly. A bench comprising...
