Bombay High Court Affirms Autonomy for Linguistic Minority Schools, Voids State Intervention

Sheikh Rayees • October 31, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent decision, the Bombay High Court ruled that the Maharashtra Educational Institutions (Management) Act of 1976 does not extend to institutions run by linguistic and religious minorities. This judgment came in response to a petition by the Karachi Education Society-Sindhi, a registered Sindhi linguistic minority trust, challenging an order by the Director of Education in Pune. The director had appointed an administrator to manage the society's Navin Hind...
