Bombay High Court Cracks Down on State's Delay Tactics, Imposes Costs for Non-Compliance

Sheikh Rayees • September 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a recent session, the Bombay High Court expressed sharp disapproval over the State's continuous requests for adjournments, which have stalled legal proceedings and impeded judicial efficiency. The court labeled the State's approach as "robotic," criticizing the habitual delays in filing reply affidavits and other essential documents. A Bench comprising Justices GS Kulkarni and Somasekhar Sundaresan emphasized that the ongoing trend of seeking adjournments is...
