Bombay High Court Shields ILS University Proposal from State Rejection

Sheikh Rayees • July 3, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move, the Bombay High Court has temporarily barred the Maharashtra government from rejecting the Indian Law Society (ILS), Pune's proposal to establish ILS University. This directive, valid until July 31, comes amid allegations of governmental inaction on a proposal submitted in November 2022. A Bench comprising Justices KR Shriram and Jitendra Jain addressed the writ petition filed by ILS, criticizing the government's delay. ILS argued that it...
