Bribe-Tainted Banker Loses Final Battle

Supreme Court Upholds SBI's Decision to Remove Employee

Sheikh Rayees • August 22, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The country's highest court has sent out a firm reminder: writ courts are not playgrounds for revisiting disciplinary inquiries unless due process itself has been compromised. A bench of Justices Rajesh Bindal and Manmohan has overturned the Patna High Court's decision to reinstate a State Bank of India employee, accused of pocketing bribes while greasing the wheels of loan approvals. With this, the disciplinary authority's order removing the employee from...
