Legal Aid Clinics in Law Schools Struggle to Serve India's Needy

Sheikh Rayees • November 28, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

A recent study by the Supreme Court's Centre for Research and Planning (CRP) has revealed significant shortcomings in legal aid clinics across India's 1,662 law schools. These institutions, mandated to provide free legal assistance under Article 39A of the Constitution and National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) guidelines, are falling short in their mission to bridge the gap between legal education and community service. A Fragmented Effort: Survey Findings The...
