Calcutta High Court Affirms Lawyers' Right to Work Amid 'Black Day' Strike

Sheikh Rayees • July 1, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive ruling, the Calcutta High Court underscored that no lawyer could be compelled to participate in the strike called by the West Bengal Bar Council to protest against three new criminal laws set to take effect on July 1. The court emphasized that the Bar Council's decision to observe "Black Day" is merely a suggestion, not an obligation. Justice Shampa Sarkar declared that the Bar Council's resolution to...
