Calcutta High Court Breaks Eight-Year Silence, Elevates 81 Advocates

Sheikh Rayees • November 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

After an extended pause of eight years, the Calcutta High Court has designated 81 legal professionals as Senior Advocates, marking a significant milestone for the institution. A formal notification, issued on November 26 by the Registrar General, confirmed this long-awaited development. The resolution was adopted during a full court meeting held earlier in the month, on November 21. In its deliberations, the court emphasized the importance of calibre, merit, and...
