Calcutta High Court Mandates 1% Job Quota for Transgender Individuals

Sheikh Rayees • June 18, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a landmark ruling, the Calcutta High Court has directed the West Bengal government to allocate a 1% reservation in public employment for transgender persons. This decision came in response to a petition filed by a transgender individual who, despite clearing the Teachers' Eligibility Test (TET) in both 2014 and 2022, was consistently excluded from counseling and interviews. The petitioner, meeting all eligibility criteria, was unjustly denied entry into the...
