CALCUTTA HIGH COURT

Calcutta High Court Rejects APDR Plea for Probe into Durga Puja Book Stall Demolition

Sheikh Rayees • November 11, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Calcutta High Court has declined to order an independent investigation into the demolition of a temporary book stall belonging to the Association for Protection of Democratic Rights (APDR) near Jadavpur 8B Bus Stand during Durga Puja celebrations. Justice Rishad Medora dismissed the organisation's petition, holding that the demolition did not involve a violation of its fundamental rights warranting intervention under the Court's writ jurisdiction, as the stall...
