Can Correspondence Degrees Open Doors to the Bar?

Supreme Court Steps In

Sheikh Rayees • December 17, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has agreed to weigh in on a contentious debate: should those who earn their degrees through correspondence programs be barred from enrolling as advocates? The case centers on STS Gladies, a graduate of Kakatiya University's Bachelor of Arts program in 2012, who completed her studies via correspondence. Gladies sought enrolment with the Bar Council of Telangana but faced rejection, prompting her to appeal the decision. The...
