

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

SUPREME COURT

Can' Isn't Compulsion

Supreme Court Says Optional Arbitration Wording Not Enough

Sheikh Rayees • April 18, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Supreme Court has clarified that a contractual clause merely stating disputes “can be settled by arbitration” does not automatically bind parties to arbitrate. Such language, the Court held, reflects only a possibility—not a firm commitment.

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY

LAWYERSPOST.IN