Delhi HC Bails Out Man After Drug Bust Involving Vehicle He No Longer Owned

Sheikh Rayees • March 25, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a curious twist involving a used car, a half-baked sale, and a load of ganja, the Delhi High Court recently bailed out a man who found himself dragged into a narcotics case—because the car used to ferry the drugs still happened to be in his name. The man, Rahul, told the court that he had handed over the vehicle to someone else months earlier as part of an informal...
