Calcutta High Court Halts State's Stipend Scheme for Axed School Staff

Sheikh Rayees • June 21, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Calcutta High Court has hit pause on the West Bengal government's controversial attempt to cushion thousands of ousted school employees with a public-funded stipend—after top courts found their appointments steeped in fraud. At the heart of the storm lies the 2016 recruitment drive by the West Bengal School Service Commission (WBSSC), which handed out over 24,000 teaching and non-teaching jobs. Over 23 lakh candidates had vied for these posts....
