CCI Shuts Down Collusion Claims Against Hindalco, Vedanta in Copper Market Showdown

Sheikh Rayees • June 17, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a market where molten metal and high-stakes contracts collide, the Competition Commission of India (CCI) has stepped back from the fire. A complaint accusing copper giants Hindalco and Vedanta of misusing their market muscle has been tossed out, with the regulator finding no breach of India's competition laws. Together, Hindalco and Vedanta command nearly three-quarters of the country's refined copper supply. That dominance had raised eyebrows—and allegations. The...
