Chandigarh Warned to Fill Legal Vacancies by November, Court Threatens Contempt Action

Sheikh Rayees • September 12, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp directive, the Punjab and Haryana High Court has ordered the Chandigarh administration to swiftly address vacancies in the posts of Deputy District Attorney and Assistant District Attorney, warning of potential contempt proceedings if the positions remain unfilled by November. The court's bench, led by Chief Justice Sheel Nagu and Justice Anil Kshetarpal, emphasized the importance of these appointments, noting their direct connection to the efficient...
