Government Launches Judicial Probe into Deadly Stampede

Sheikh Rayees • July 4, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a decisive move, the Uttar Pradesh government has established a three-member judicial commission to investigate the catastrophic stampede at Hathras, which resulted in over 120 fatalities. Leading the commission is Justice Brijesh Kumar Srivastav (II), a former judge of the Allahabad High Court. He will be joined by IAS officer Hemant Rao and retired IPS officer Bhavesh Kumar. The tragic incident occurred during a satsang organized to honor self-proclaimed...
