Calcutta High Court Steps In, Calls for Central Forces to Tame Unrest

Sheikh Rayees • April 14, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

Violence flared in Murshidabad over the controversial Waqf Amendment Act, leaving at least three dead and forcing the Calcutta High Court to order boots on the ground. The court's urgent Saturday hearing turned into a direct intervention, with scathing observations about the state's sluggish response and a firm directive to bring in Central Armed Police Forces. The courtroom saw a dramatic rebuke from the Bench of Justices Soumen Sen and...
