Delhi Court Affirms Consumer Commissions' Power to Arrest

Sheikh Rayees • October 7, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Delhi High Court has fortified the authority of consumer commissions, empowering them to issue arrest warrants under the Consumer Protection Act. Justice Sanjeev Narula confirmed that these commissions hold judicial powers akin to a first-class magistrate, making arrest warrants a potent tool for ensuring compliance with their directives. This ruling came after a petition by Rakesh Khanna, a former director of VXL Realtors Pvt. Ltd.,...
