COURT OF RECORD

Court Backs Forced Retirement of District Judge Over Undisclosed Assets

Sheikh Rayees • February 27, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

A district judge's attempt to challenge his compulsory retirement has been turned down, with the court reinforcing the necessity of transparency and accountability within the judiciary. The judge in question faced scrutiny over his alleged failure to disclose property acquisitions made by his wife, a requirement under a High Court circular issued in 1997. Despite his argument that no rule explicitly mandated such disclosures if the assets were not acquired...
