

THE

LAWYERS' POST

BY THE COURT CAST PROJECT

SUPREME COURT

Court Deposit Alone Does Not End Interest Liability, Supreme Court Clarifies

Sheikh Rayees • September 20, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

A deposit made in court after an arbitral award does not, by itself, bring the award-debtor's interest liability to an end. The Supreme Court has held that interest stops running only when the deposited amount is placed unconditionally at the disposal of the award-holder.

Full report • lawyerspost.in

OPEN JUDGMENT PDF

FULL STORY