COURT OF RECORD

Rajasthan High Court Denies NDPS Bail Despite Extended Custody

Editorial Team • October 8, 2026

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Rajasthan High Court on 6 October denied bail to a man accused over the recovery of 210 kilograms of poppy straw, holding that prolonged custody alone did not overcome the statutory restrictions for commercial-quantity narcotics cases. The Court found the record prima facie connected the applicant to the shed where the contraband was found and treated conscious possession as a matter for trial. It also rejected an objection to...
