COURT OF RECORD

Court Overturns Actress's Stalking Allegations Against Director, Dismisses Charges

Sheikh Rayees • November 6, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant legal decision, the Kerala High Court has quashed the criminal case filed by an actress against filmmaker Sreekumar Menon. The court ruled that the allegations, which included stalking, obscenity, and intent to insult a woman's modesty, did not substantiate the charges under the relevant sections of the Indian Penal Code. The case stemmed from a 2019 complaint by the actress, who had previously collaborated with Menon's advertising...
