Court Questions Flurry of PILs

High Court Challenges Legal Services Committee's Role"

Sheikh Rayees • November 16, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In an unusual moment of scrutiny, the Karnataka High Court raised concerns over the Karnataka High Court Legal Services Committee (KHLSC) filing an array of public interest litigations (PILs). The observation came during the hearing of a PIL advocating for improved wages and working conditions for part-time daily workers serving in the residences of High Court judges. Presiding over the matter, Chief Justice NV Anjaria and Justice KV Aravind remarked...
