SUPREME COURT

Court Rules Out Limitation Act's Extension in Late Arbitration Appeals

Sheikh Rayees • July 11, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a significant ruling, the Supreme Court has clarified that appeals against arbitral awards, filed beyond the three-month limit, cannot benefit from the 30-day extension mentioned in Section 34(3) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. This decision reinforces that Section 4 of the Limitation Act, which allows for court closures affecting filing deadlines, does not extend to such cases. The case involved the State of West Bengal's challenge against...
