COURT OF RECORD

Court Slams Advocate for Baseless Accusations, Fines Client INR2 Lakh

Sheikh Rayees • February 5, 2025

PUBLISHED REPORT

The Gujarat High Court has strongly criticized advocate Deepak Khosla and his client, Gujarat Operational Creditors Association, for making baseless allegations against multiple judges and accusing senior lawyers of contempt. In a scathing ruling, the court imposed a INR2 lakh fine on Khosla's client, calling the case an "epitome of frivolity." A bench comprising Justices AS Supehia and Gita Gopi condemned the application as a deliberate attempt to discredit judges...
