COURT OF RECORD

Court Slams Tamil Nadu for “Frivolous” Appeals, Imposes INR5 Lakh Costs

Sheikh Rayees • August 27, 2024

PUBLISHED REPORT

In a sharp rebuke, the judiciary has imposed a INR5 lakh penalty on the Tamil Nadu government for what it deemed frivolous appeals aimed at avoiding the payment of salary arrears to assistant professors appointed in 2009. A judicial bench criticized the State's "atrocious game" against its citizens and expressed hope that the hefty costs would discourage future attempts to evade responsibility through unnecessary legal challenges. The case revolved around...
